HON. CHARLES R. BREYER

We, Plaintiffs Shirley V. Remmert and Eva D. Al-Zaghari, hereby file a list of exhibits and witnesses for trial on the motion for a temporary restraining order of Probate Court orders in Case No. 108876 LPS, In the Matter of Eva D. Al-Zaghari and No.

DECLARATION

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SAN MATEO COUNTY

I, Plaintiff Shirley V. Remmert, can competently testify as to the facts in this motion, as I am knowledgeable about those matters and have personal experience therein.

2 As for those matters based on reliable information, I believe them to be true. I declare
3 that these statements are true and correct under the penalties for perjury of the federal
4 laws.

2 LIST OF EXHIBITS IN SUPPORT OF A TRO

3 Exhibit A

5 DR. MARY MARGARET FLYNN, M.D., San Mateo County psychiatrist, wrote
6 in a medical record four months before she conserved Eva Al-Z.: Patient “ does not meet
7 legal criteria for conservatorship...” (November 17, 2004)

8 Exhibit B

10 The psychiatrist wrote the following day that she spoke to a Deputy Public
11 Guardian for my mother, Julia Venoya, and falsely determined that I “ more focused on...
12 suing the probate conservators”.

13 Exhibit C

14
15 PARAMEDICS FROM THE MENLO PARK FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT
16 found that Eva Al-Zaghari was not an emergency case, even though Deputy Sheriff Sean
17 O'Donnell tried to make it a “5150” (cause for detention by psychiatrists under Welfare
18 and Institutions Code sec. 5150) (March 26, 2005)

19 Exhibit D

21 PARAMEDICS FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL RESPONSE (AMR)
22 AMBULANCE reported back to “911 PUBLIC SAFETY COMMUNICATIONS OF 23 THE SHERIFF’S OFFICE that Eva Al-Z. is not a “5150”, but AMR did drive her to 24 Kaiser Hospital, at whose insistence, I do not know (March 26, 2005).

25 Exhibit E

26
27 A letter from U. S. PROBATION OFFICER ESTHER M. DAVIS states that Eva
28

1 Al-Z. was deemed competent by the federal court. Her competency for the successful
2 completion of the probation program for an unrelated misdemeanor in 2002 was
3 concurrent with the county court's issuance of a conservatorship order on June 7, 2005.

5 Exhibit F

6 Deputy County Counsel Peter K. Finck and Deputy County Counsel Judith A.
7 Holiber insisted on making the conservatorship case a criminal one: People of the State of
8 California v. Eva D. Al-Zaghari, but there are no law enforcement reports citing Eva Al-
9 Z. for a new crime linked to a conservatorship investigation. The incident in 2002 was 10 her only scrape with the law (Exhibit E).
11

12 Pending Evidence for Preliminary Injunction, if Granted

13 Re: No hearings with Eva Al-Z.'s or my Opportunity for Opposition
14

15 There is no evidence that Eva Al-Z. had a hearing for forcible drugging with 16 psychosis-inducing, mind-altering drugs. She had no hearing under the LPS Act, which 17 allows in effect ownership of her person and estate. She had no hearing to determine the 18 truthfulness of reports that she abuses drugs, or is suicidal. Private Defenders and others
19 will be examined.
20
21

22 WITNESS FOR TRO HEARING

23 COMMANDER TERRI MOLAKIDES OF THE MENLO PARK POLICE will
24 bring the record of a criminal complaint that Eva Al-Z. (then Eva D. Remmert) and I
25 made concerning an assault against her. She was drugged, raped, and brutalized in this 26 still unsolved crime. I believe that the blunders in the conservatorship case are actually
27
28

2 intentional. Her life is in danger, as criminals would like to see her mind destroyed.

Psychiatry Note: Eva Alzaahari. Room 303-1

O: Met with patient and her mother. MSE: Patient I believe for the first time since admission is dressed in something other than hospital gown. She is alert and oriented. She avoids eye contact. Most of her brief responses are in the altered squeaky voice. She acknowledges she is looking forward to discharge tomorrow. She appears very internally preoccupied but was able to remain through the entire interview. She said she would take her medications. She knows she has diabetes. She did not know she has hypertension. She has no insight and grossly impaired judgment. She has not engaged in any further assaultative behaviors. She continues to frequently "hide" in the bathroom. Discussed with mother the glucoscan, monitoring BP, taking geodon. I called and spoke with Dr Verby. Patient has appointment Monday Nov 22, 2005 with him and the week of Dec 1 with internist See discharg summary sheet.

A: no change in Dx

P: discharge tomorrow to mother's care and with physicians as noted in chart. I am → unable to conserve this patient, as she does not meet legal criteria for conservatorship
→ under the LPS law. In addition she is more anxious in the hospital. If her mother will indeed follow through and give the patient her antipsychotic medicine as well as meds for her medical problem prognosis is better. But unfortunately mother's judgment has not been particularly good in the past, although she is verbalizing compliance with giving her daughter the medicine. And monitoring her glucose and HBP.

Psychiatry Note: Eva Al-Zaghari, Room 303-1

S: Yes, I will.

O: Patient was able to speak in a more normal tone of voice for about three sentences. Then she spoke at some length and I couldn't understand a word she said and she diminished the sound of her voice to where she was sub vocalizing, and then just moving her lips to her self. She avoided eye contact. She is internally preoccupied and appeared to be hallucinating throughout the interview. She was less anxious. She was able to provide some information in normal tone of voice e.g. her birthday. She willingly signed forms for us to send discharge summary to her internist and to Dr. Verby. She clearly said she is glad to be going home. She became more anxious and subvocalized more when I attempted to talk with her about DM and hypertension. She has no insight and grossly impaired judgment.

Collateral contact: The probate conservator of Eva's maternal grandmother who lives in home with Eva and Mrs. Remertz called. The grandmother is Eva's mother's mother. And Eva's mother's father (the maternal grandfather) owns the home and wants to evict Eva and Eva's mother, his daughter from the home. Eva's mother, Mrs. Remertz has been managing the wealth and properties of her father and mother. The guardianship of the grandmother wants the grandmother moved to a skilled nursing facility and is hoping to be able to protect the assets of the family, which are apparently dwindling secondary to Eva's mother's (Mrs. Remertz's) business practices and poor judgments. The maternal grandmother does have paranoid schizophrenia. In talking with Mrs. Remertz, she describes another female relative with being diagnosed with schizophrenia but "she is normal now". Talked with mother today. Mother verbally agreed to give Eva the geodon and her antihypertensive and antidiabetic medication. I strongly recommended to the mother that as Dr Verby is a pediatrician and not psychiatrist that Eva get an adult psychiatrist to follow her schizophrenia. Mother herself remain NOT convinced Eva has schizophrenia or even DM and HBP but is saying she will have her take medications.

- Eva's mother is more focused on getting Eva to her visitations with her son, to suing the ← → probate conservators, suing g her father to remain in the house. However I cannot conserve Eva and I also don't think clinically it would be helpful to take Eva away from the family necessarily, particularly if her mother will follow through with the medical and psychiatric follow p I will be writing out and recommending to her, Dr Verb, The internist, the psychologist and all the other collateral contacts this stay.

A: no change in DX

P: Mrs. Remertz received instruction today on how to do the finger sticks. She also expressed concern about Eva's hirsute, and endocrine and Ob-Gyn problems.
